

THE HUU-AY-AHT FIRST NATIONS TRIBUNAL

The Tribunal Act establishes the Huu-ay-aht Tribunal with members appointed by Executive Council, the Ha'wiih Council and the People's Assembly to:

- decide appeals from administrative decisions,
- determine the validity of Huu-ay-aht laws,
- conduct investigations,
- resolve disputes between Huu-ay-aht citizens if the parties request resolution,
- lay an information under the Offence Act (British Columbia) for an offence under Huu-ay-aht law,
- provide information and recommendations on sentencing to a court, and
- perform other duties assigned to the Tribunal by Executive Council or by Huu-ay-aht law.
