SCHEDULE

Purpose

- 1 The purpose of this regulation is to establish an administrative review that will assist in encouraging and enabling Huu-ay-aht citizens to reach their full potential.

Definitions

- 2 In this regulation:
 - “committee” means the Citizen Development Committee;
 - “review officer” means the Citizen Development Review Officer appointed under section 3.HFNR 1/2013, s. 1.

Appointment of Citizen Development Review Officer

- 3
 - (1) By June 30, 2013, and every 4 years after that date, Executive Council must appoint a qualified individual as Citizen Development Review Officer for a term not to exceed 12 months.
 - (2) Executive Council must specify the terms of the review officer’s appointment including remuneration and expenses.
 - (3) If Executive Council does not appoint a review officer under subsection (1), the Executive Director must appoint a director or manager to carry out the powers, duties and functions of the review officer.
 - (4) The powers, duties and functions granted a review officer under subsection (3) are in addition to the existing powers, duties and functions of the director or manager.
 - (5) A review officer, may delegate in writing any of his or her powers, duties or functions under this regulation except the power to delegate.
 - (6) A delegation under subsection (5) does not relieve the review officer from the responsibility of ensuring the delegated powers, duties and functions are properly carried out.

HFNR 1/2013, ss. 2(a) and (b).

Powers and duties of review officer

- 4 A review officer has the power and duty to do the following:
- (a) design and conduct a citizen development survey of Huu-ay-aht citizens;
 - (b) prepare a report on citizen development policies, programs and legislation;
 - (c) perform other duties and exercise other powers Executive Council or the review officer considers advisable to assist Huu-ay-aht citizen development.

Citizen development survey

- 5 (1) A citizen development survey must
- (a) include, to the extent reasonably possible, indicators comparable to citizen development indicators of other relevant populations, and
 - (b) not duplicate surveys conducted in the 12-month period before the survey is administered.
- (2) The committee may establish additional terms of reference for a citizen development survey.

Consultation

- 6 The review officer must
- (a) invite input from the committee on the form and content of a citizen development survey, and
 - (b) consult on the form and content of a survey with such other persons, organizations, survey experts and authorities as the review officer or the committee considers advisable.

Citizen development survey report

- 7 The review officer must prepare a report on the results of each citizen development survey and do the following:
- (a) deliver the report as soon as practicable after the survey is completed to
 - (i) the committee, and
 - (ii) Executive Council;
 - (b) give public notice of the report;
 - (c) present the report at the first People's Assembly after the report is delivered under paragraph (a).

Citizen development policies, programs and legislation review

- 8 (1) After conducting a citizen development survey, the review officer must prepare a further report on citizen development reviewing the survey results, and information obtained from the following sources:
- (a) a review of policies, programs and legislation in the areas set out in the Schedule;
 - (b) written input on citizen development, requested from and provided by Huu-ay-aht citizens;
 - (c) consultation with the committee on citizen development policies, programs, and legislation.

- (2) The review officer's report under subsection (1) must
 - (a) assess whether current policies, programs and legislation encourage and enable HUU-ay-aht citizens to succeed in the following areas:
 - (i) preschool education;
 - (ii) kindergarten to grade 12 education;
 - (iii) post secondary education, including apprenticeship and skills training offered by post secondary institutions;
 - (iv) practical skills training and capacity development,
 - (b) recommend changes to policies, programs and legislation to encourage and enable HUU-ay-aht citizens to better succeed in the areas set out in paragraph (a), and
 - (c) make other recommendations for policies, programs, and legislation the review officer considers advisable to encourage and enable HUU-ay-aht citizens to reach their full potential.
- (3) The committee may establish additional terms of reference for the citizen development report.

Citizen development report delivery

- 9 After preparing the citizen development report under section 8, the review officer must do the following:
 - (a) deliver the report as soon as practicable to
 - (i) the committee, and
 - (ii) Executive Council;
 - (b) give public notice of the report;
 - (c) present the report at the first People's Assembly after the report is delivered under paragraph (a).

Biannual progress report

- 10 (1) By September 30, 2015, and every 2 years after that, the committee must provide Executive Council with a progress report on HUU-ay-aht citizen development.
- (2) Executive Council must give public notice of the progress report under subsection (1).
