A How To Guide on how to Vote in the upcoming Federal Election

1 Piece of ID

You only need one piece of ID if it is government-issued and has your name, photo and home address:

Driver's License
Provincial/Territorial Card

2 Pieces of ID

If you do not have government issued photo ID, you need two pieces of ID that have your name and one must have your home address. Examples include:

NAME: Status card, health card, birth certificate, prescription label

NAME AND ADDRESS: Utility bill or bank statement, government cheque or cheque stub, Letter of Confirmation of Residence

NO ID

If you do not have two pieces of ID that meet this criteria you can have someone swear an oath for you:

Bring two pieces of ID that have your name on them, and have another person who is eligible to vote at your polling station swear an oath that you live in the same voting district
