ANCIENT SPIRIT, MODERN MIND

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 8, 2024

Huu-ay-aht People's Assembly on November 16, 2024

Huu-ay-aht First Nations Ḥawiiḥ and Executive Council are committed to providing support to citizens so that everyone can contribute to bringing success to the Nation.

This support is done by providing travel and accommodation to citizens participating in our Annual People's Assembly. During online preregistration, you checked the box that you read the "Huu- ay-aht People's Assembly Attendance Policy". The policy outlines obligations and requirements for travel and accommodation.

Along with the policy commitment, we ask in return from Huu-ay-aht citizens that they fully participate throughout the People's Assembly, by attending the assembly and upholding our guiding principles of ʔiisaak, hišuk ma c'awak, and ʔuuʔatuk and by conducting themselves in a healthy and safe manner.

A few important points about services provided to attend the People's Assembly:

- Shuttle service is only available for 1) Elders & citizens who have a disability and 2) shuttle from designated hotels.
- Remember to bring your mailed copies of the materials, there will only be a small amount available at the assembly.

We ask that everyone please uphold our guiding principles and be respectful to the team that is supporting the People's Assembly. Mistreating, yelling, or any form of harassment will not be tolerated.

On behalf of the Elected Executive Council and the Ḥawiiḥ Council, we look forward to seeing everyone. Only together can we steer our canoe in the right direction for a healthy, strong, and safe Government.
